

Greg Matz Joins Daré Bioscience Board of Directors

September 17, 2018

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 17, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Daré Bioscience, Inc. (NASDAQ: DARE), a clinical-stage, women's biopharmaceutical company, today announced the appointment of Greg Matz to its board of directors. Most recently, Mr. Matz served as the Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer for The Cooper Companies, which includes CooperSurgical, marketers of PARAGARD®, the only hormone-free, long lasting, reversible contraceptive approved by the United States Food and Drug Administration available in the United States.

"Greg brings a broad and diverse skill set that includes organizational development and strategic planning for a global medical device company," said Sabrina Martucci Johnson, President and CEO of Daré Bioscience. "Greg is well suited to help Daré execute on its vision of becoming a coordinating presence in women's health and we are excited to add him to our highly distinguished board of directors during this important and transformational stage in Dare's corporate evolution."

The Cooper Companies is a publicly traded, global medical device company that operates through two business units, CooperVision and CooperSurgical. The CooperSurgical business focuses on advancing the health of families through a diversified portfolio of products and services focusing on women's health, fertility, diagnostics and contraception. The company has over 11,000 employees with products sold in over 100 countries. In his role as CFO, Mr. Matz provided leadership for the financial functions including planning, reporting, tax, audit, business analytics and risk management. In addition, he closely partnered with the executive team on global strategy, M&A, investor relations and business development activities.

Prior to his role as CFO with The Cooper Companies, Mr. Matz was CFO at CooperVision Inc., where he led global finance and information technology and managed a team of over 400 people. Prior to these roles, Mr. Matz served in a variety of senior-level positions for Agilent Technologies including Business Unit Controller, Vice President of Global Audit Services and Controller for Mergers, Acquisitions & Divestitures. Before joining Agilent, Mr. Matz held management positions at Hewlett Packard and KPMG.

"Daré is quickly becoming an innovation accelerator and pipeline conduit for women's health-focused commercial-stage companies," said Mr. Matz. "I am delighted to lend my expertise to the organization and join the board of directors to help unlock value from Daré's diverse portfolio of novel women's health products."

About Daré Bioscience

Daré Bioscience is a clinical-stage biopharmaceutical company committed to the advancement of innovative products for women's reproductive and sexual health.
